Art Unit: 3727

- IX. Claim 10, drawn to luggage with wheels, a handle, a removable drawer and an externally accessible pouch, classified in class 190, subclass 108.
- X. Claims 12 and 18, drawn to luggage with wheels, a handle, a table, a hook on the handle forming a closet rod, a removable shelf and a removable drawer, classified in class 312, subclass 268.6.
- XI. Claims 13 and 14, drawn to luggage with wheels, a handle with a hook and a closet rod, a table, a removable shelf, removable drawer and externally accessible pouch and drawer, classified in class 312, subclass 249.11.
- XII. Claim 15, drawn to luggage with wheels, a handle having a coat hook and a closet rod, a table, a removable shelf, a removable drawer and a digital alarm clock, classified in class 312, subclass 237.
- XIII. Claim 16, drawn to luggage with wheels, a handle with a coat hook and closet rod, a table, a removable shelf, a removable drawer and an identification plaque, classified in class 312, subclass 234.
- XIV. Claim 17, drawn to luggage with wheels, a handle with a coat hook and closet rod, a table, a removable shelf, a removable drawer and an externally accessible pouch, classified in class 312, subclass 237.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

- 2. The inventions are independent or distinct, each from the other because:

Art Unit: 3727

3. Inventions of each of Groups I and Groups II-XIV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination of Group I has separate utility such as use as a tool chest while the subcombination of Group V has use as a hobby work station and the sub combination of Group X for example has use as a portable sewing station. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

4. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

5. Receipt of applicant's IDS is acknowledged. The references will be considered with the application is take up for an action on the merits.

6. The following are suggested formats for either a Certificate of Mailing or Certificate of Transmission under 37 CFR 1.8(a). The certification may be included with all correspondence concerning this application or proceeding to establish a date of mailing or transmission under 37 CFR 1.8(a). Proper use of this procedure will result in such communication being considered as timely if the established date is within the required period for reply. The Certificate should be signed by the individual actually depositing or transmitting the correspondence or by an individual who, upon information and belief, expects the correspondence to be mailed or transmitted in the normal course of business by another no later than the date indicated.
